CLASS OR GROUP SERIES

Couples Communicating about Cancer
Tuesdays, February 13 – March 5, 5:30-7:30pm
Join us for a four-week group series for couples impacted by cancer. The intention is for participating couples to learn to improve communication while discovering ways to cultivate connectedness and intimacy and emerge as a more unified team with a mutual understanding of how cancer affects both partners.

Curious about Cancer at the Fairfax Family Center
Thursdays, April 4 – May 2, 5:30-7pm
This 5-week program is for kids ages 7-11 with a family member with cancer. This group will provide kids with the opportunity to learn about cancer in age-appropriate way, learn and share coping skills, and be supported by peers with similar experiences. This program is being offered at the same time as Mind Over Matter for Parents and parents are encouraged to register for both programs. Dinner will be provided. For any questions, please reach out to LWCPeds@inova.org.

Grieving Parent Support: Navigating Loss Together at the Fairfax Family Center
Tuesday, April 9 – May 14, 6:30-8pm
This 6-week, in-person support group is for parents, guardians, and caregivers (couples or individuals) who are within 3-years of losing a child to pediatric cancer.

Meaning-Centered Psychotherapy Group
Wednesdays, April 10 – June 5, (no class May 22) 12-1:30pm
This 8-week series helps foster a sense of meaning, peace, and purpose in your life. In this program developed at Memorial Sloan Kettering, each week explores a different source of meaning, drawing from the work of Viktor Frankl. Weekly attendance and participation in home-based assignments are expected.

Men’s Sexual Health Series
Tuesdays, 6-7:15pm
March 26 – Pelvic Floor Physical Therapy for Men after Treatment
April 2 – Pelvic Floor Movement
April 16 – Psychosexual Adjustment to a Cancer Diagnosis & Treatment for Couples
April 30 – Everything You Need to Know about Testosterone, Sexual Health & Cancer
Sexual health is an important aspect of quality of life that can change throughout the trajectory of treatment and survivorship. This 8-week educational series is open to all men who have been diagnosed with cancer and their caregivers. In this presentation, we will hear from pelvic floor and sexual health expert Dr. Susie Gronski, PT, DPT. Coping with changes in bladder, bowel, and sexual function after cancer treatment can be both challenging and distressing. Pelvic health therapy plays a crucial role in promoting independence and confidence in important daily activities like pooping, peeing, and sex. This presentation aims to provide insights into the role of the pelvic floor, the impact of cancer treatment on pelvic health encompassing physical, mental, and emotional aspects, and an overview of rehabilitation approaches for various cancers, including testicular, penile, prostate, bladder, colorectal and anal cancer.

Mind Over Matter
Mondays, 12:30-2pm, March 5 – April 2 and Wednesdays, 5:30-7pm, April 3-May 1
Learn tips and tools to handle the big feelings that are often present throughout a cancer journey. This 5-week class can help you deal with the fears, worries, and sadness that come up for many people.
Please note that this class is an interactive, small group series, so please plan to attend and participate for all five sessions.

Mind Over Matter for Black & African American Women: Research Study
Mondays, 6:30-8pm, March 25-May 6 and Tuesdays, 7-8:30pm, April 23-June 4
Managing cancer is hard. Strong, difficult feelings are normal and are part of every life. And strong feelings are certainly part of a life lived with cancer. You can learn tools to help yourself cope. Research has shown that Black and African American cancer survivors may have higher levels of distress. Inova Life with Cancer has developed a program called Mind Over Matter (MOM) which is designed to teach coping skills to participants to help manage the feelings and side effects associated with an experience of cancer, including diagnosis, treatment, and survivorship. This study will explore if Mind Over Matter (MOM) is acceptable to Black and African American women who have received a cancer diagnosis and have completed primary treatment. Click here or email mindovermatter@inova.org to learn more.

Mind Over Matter for Parents
Thursdays, April 4 – May 2, 5:30-7pm
This offering is open to parents of school-aged children, who also have a cancer diagnosis or has a partner with a cancer diagnosis. This session will run concurrently with Curious About Cancer, a program for children ages 7-11. Dinner will be provided for all participants.

Pelvic Floor Health Series - Advanced
Mondays, April 1-22, 5-5:45pm
Breathing, guided visualizations, and yoga asana are used to restore health to the pelvic floor, align the hips, stabilize low back and build awareness of center. This month-long workshop is for those who have participated in a full PFH Beginning/Intro workshop and are able to make time for semiweekly homework. The PFH Intermediate Workshop operates around an EBP 45-minute syllabus for exploration and strength. Understanding of and home practice with the pelvic clock and 4-part breathing is necessary in order to keep pace with this class. Join Sayde as we build a bridge back to ourselves! Requirements- must have completed 2 sessions of PFH Intro or 1 session and semiweekly home practice.

Pelvic Floor Health Series - Introduction
Mondays, March 18-April 29, 4-4:45pm
Welcome to help with alignment, pain, tension, leakage, and groundedness in the hips, low back, sacrum, pelvis, and more! Join as we become educated about the tight muscles that cause pelvic pain, leakage, AND the weak muscles that cause prolapses and low back tension. Pelvic Floor dysfunction can result from injury, stress, poor posture, surgery, and more. Sayde uses breathing, guided visualizations, and yoga asana to restore health to the pelvic floor.
What you need: yoga materials (if you have them) or 2 blankets/beach towels, 2 pillows and space to stretch on the floor/bed. This workshop restarts every month, so you never have to wait more than a few weeks to join.

Small Group Training at the Life with Cancer Family Center
Fridays, 12:30-1:30pm and 1:30 – 2:30pm
Looking to get reacquainted with movement focusing on a gentle approach to improving balance, strength endurance while keeping you accountable? Join us IN PERSON for small group training led by our Cancer Exercise Certified Trainer. These classes run on a monthly basis, and we ask that you plan to attend all the sessions in the series so you can experience firsthand the full benefits that exercise has to offer. Don’t think about it, just show up and join the supportive encouraging sessions.
Fitness evaluation required prior to starting. Click here to schedule your fitness consultation to make sure this program is right for you.

Turning the Page: An Art Therapy Altered Book Series
Wednesday, April 3 – May 1, 5:20-7:30pm
Participants will alter and transform an existing book into a new piece of art while creatively exploring their cancer experience and connecting with others. Using the pages of the book as a canvas, participants will engage in creative reframing and reclaiming through this art-based process. Several different art materials will be explored in this 5-week series. No prior artistic experience required. This series is for participants in survivorship/off active treatment. Facilitator: Jane Woo, LPC, ATR-BC
